Like working with computers?
Want to work on issues of national security?

Consider a career in
INFORMATION ASSURANCE or INFORMATION SECURITY!!

Digital Forensics * Homeland Security * Cybersecurity

FACT:

The U.S. Bureau of Statistics projects a 48% INCREASE IN JOBS for computer software engineers and a 55% INCREASE IN JOBS for network system and data communications analysts.

You can become…
...an Electronic Crimes Special Agent for the US Secret Service
...an Officer for the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA)
....a Professor of Information and Technology Systems
...the President of a private internet security company
...an Information Security Consultant
...a Technology Policy Analyst
... and much more!

There are many two and four-year college programs and internship opportunities in the Maryland/DC/Virginia area to prepare you for an IA/IS career. See your school counselor for more information!